

ORDINANCE NO.001-127

AN ORDINANCE DECLARING PUBLIC
BIDDING DISADVANTAGEOUS AND AUTHORIZING THE ADVERTISEMENT OF
CTA SERVICES IN THE CHICAGO DAILY
DEFENDER PUBLICATION

WHEREAS, The Chicago Transit Authority is in need of advertising to promote off-peak ridership by highlighting popular destinations near CTA's stations; and

WHEREAS, The Authority has selected Chicago Daily Defender as one of its publications to advertise in, which is Chicago's only publication for and about professional; and

WHEREAS, The Authority has identified this publication as one that meets its needs due to the demographics it serves, whereby it is disadvantageous for the CTA to seek competitive bidding for this type of advertising service; and

WHEREAS, Section 54.3-5 of the Regulations Governing Purchase and Sales Transactions provides for the award of contracts in those situations where the Transit Board determines that competitive bidding would be disadvantageous; now, therefore:

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CHICAGO TRANSIT BOARD
OF THE CHICAGO TRANSIT AUTHORITY:

SECTION 1. That based on the statements set forth in the preamble of this ordinance, the Transit Board hereby determines that competitive bidding for this service is disadvantageous.

SECTION 2. That the Chairman of the Board, or her designee, is hereby authorized to enter into a contract with Chicago Daily Defender. Vendor will provide advertising once a month for a period of five (5) months, for seven thousand nine hundred eighty six dollars and twenty-two cents ($7,986.22), under Requisition No. C01OP05088.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage.
